“After being in the industry for over 30 years I never thought I would learn something new about metal work.

I can say without a doubt after this week I will never look at dent repair the same way again. These guys are truly masters at their trade. If you ever have an opportunity to take one of their classes don't hesitate, you won't regret a second of it.”

Jim Wensel – Technical Trainer, Gerber Collision & Glass (May 2018)
